"Hannah: A Woman After God's Own Heart!"

1st Samuel 1:1-11; 19-28, & 2:18-21, & 3:19-21

Now there was a certain man from Ramathaim-zophim from the hill country of Ephraim, his name was Elkanah the son of Jeroham, the son of Elihu, the son of Tohu, the son of Zuph, an Ephraimite. He had two wives: the name of one was Hannah and the name of the other Peninnah. Peninnah had children, but Hannah had no children. Now this man would go up from his city yearly to worship and to sacrifice to the Lord of Hosts in Shiloh. When the day came that Elkanah sacrificed, he would give portions to Peninnah his wife and to all her sons and her daughters; but to Hannah he would give a double portion, for he loved Hannah, but the Lord still had closed her womb. Her rival (Peninnah), however, would provoke her bitterly to irritate her, because the Lord had closed her womb. It happened year after year, as often as she went up to the House of the Lord (in Shiloh), she (Peninnah) would provoke her; so, Hannah wept and would not eat. Then Elkanah her husband said to her, "Hannah, why do you weep and why do you not eat? Why is your heart sad? Am I not better to you than ten sons?" She (Hannah), greatly distressed, wept bitterly, and prayed to the Lord at Shiloh. She made a vow, "O Lord of Hosts, if You will indeed look on the affliction of Your maidservant and remember me, and not forget Your maidservant, but will give Your maidservant a son, then I will give him to the Lord all the days of his life, and a razor shall never come on his head (a Nazarite from birth)." And Elkanah had relations with Hannah his wife, and the Lord remembered her. It came about in due time, after Hannah had conceived, that she gave birth to a son; and she named him Samuel, saying, "Because I have asked him of the Lord." Then the man Elkanah went up with all his household to offer to the Lord the yearly sacrifice and pay his yow. But Hannah did not go up, for she said to her husband, "I will not go up until the child is weaned; then I will bring him, that he may appear before the Lord and stay there forever!" So, the woman remained and nursed her son until she weaned him. Now when she (Hannah) had weaned him, she took him up with her (and an Offering), a three-year-old bull and one ephah of flour and a jug of wine, and brought him to the House of the Lord in Shiloh, even though the child was very young. Then they slaughtered the bull, and brought the boy to Eli, the High Priest. Hannah said, "Oh, my lord! As your soul lives, my lord, I am the woman who stood here beside you, praying to the Lord. For this boy I prayed, and the Lord has given me my petition which I asked of Him. So, I have also dedicated him to the Lord; as long as he lives, he is dedicated to the Lord!" And Samuel worshiped and ministered before the Lord there in Shiloh. Now Samuel was ministering before the Lord, as a boy. And his mother (Hannah) would make him a little robe and bring it to him from year to year when she would come up with her husband to offer the yearly sacrifice. Then Eli would bless Elkanah and his wife (Hannah) saying, "May the Lord give you children from this woman in place of the one she dedicated to the Lord." And they went to their own home. The Lord visited Hannah; and she conceived and gave birth to three more sons and two more daughters. And the boy Samuel grew before the Lord. Thus, Samuel grew, and the Lord was with him. All Israel knew that Samuel was confirmed as a Prophet of the Lord. And the Lord Appeared Again (by Epiphany in His Dwelling Presence in the Holy of Holies) at Shiloh, because the Lord Revealed Himself (Theophany) to Samuel at Shiloh by the Word of the Lord (Rhema).
